- Status: Initial Cleared (Alhamdulillah)

Overall Feedback

- Special thanks to the EduSmart admin and group support.
- Lectures, Files were shared on time and guidance was very helpful.
- Proper preparation through group material made the test manageable.

Verbal Section (Intelligence)

- Mostly covered from Past 100 MCQs file.
- 126-pages file was more than enough for preparation.
- Around 90% of the verbal came from shared material.
- Time management is the key factor.
- Do not spend more than 20 seconds per question.
- Skip long/unseen questions first and attempt them later.
- Speed + smart attempt strategy is important.

Non-Verbal Section

- Slightly tricky but doable.
- Stay calm and carefully observe patterns.
- Many questions based on clockwise and anti-clockwise series.
- Focus and practice from files is sufficient.

Academic Section (International Relations)

- Comparatively complex and conceptual.
- Strong grip on current affairs is required.
- Prepare traditional and non-traditional IR theories.
- Important concepts: Arbitration, Mediation, Diplomacy.
- Revise dates of treaties and conferences.
- Cold War timeline preparation is important.
- Names of famous books by political scientists.
