LCC-21 Initial Test Experience (JAG Branch) – RWP Centre

Corps: JAG Branch

Centre: Rawalpindi (RWP)

Status: Cleared Alhamdulillah

I appeared in LCC-21 Initial Test for JAG Branch at RWP centre. Overall, the test was manageable, especially for those who prepared from files and revised core law concepts. The verbal portion had a majority of questions repeated from previous files, so strong preparation from compiled material was very helpful.

Verbal / Intelligence Section

Most questions were file-based. Topics included:

- Series completion
- Percentage question (1200 & 1500 students type)
- Word-based MCQs like Leopard and Beauty
- Mirror words
- Arrange words in dictionary order
- Gallon-related logic question

If you have practiced previous verbal files thoroughly, this section becomes easy and scoring.

Non-Verbal Section

Non-verbal questions were a bit tricky compared to verbal. Patterns required close observation as options looked similar. However, with focus and practice, they were solvable.

Academic / Law Portion (JAG Focused)

Law-based MCQs were conceptual. Important areas included:

- Solitary confinement
- CrPC Section 497
- Qazi of Abu Bakar (R.A)
- Mubah
- Res Judicata
- Affray (members requirement)
- Dacoity (minimum punishment)
- QSO total articles

- Essentials of Contract
- Common intention
- Head of Economic Council
- Jurh section
- Qatl-e-Amd section

Overall, the test emphasized file preparation and strong grip on basic legal concepts. Those preparing for JAG should revise PPC, CrPC, QSO, and Contract Act thoroughly.
